

Welcome to the University of Exeter

General code of conduct

We hope your stay is pleasant and productive. For your safety and comfort, as well as that of your fellow guests, please read the following rules and comply with them throughout your stay.

1. Guests shall acquaint themselves with the fire safety procedures and comply immediately with fire or other safety drills, alarms and instructions.
2. Guests shall behave appropriately and with discretion at all times, respectful of the Accommodation and University of Exeter staff, as well as of other guests.
3. During the quiet hours from 11pm to 7am, guests shall be particularly considerate and refrain from any conduct that could disturb others in the vicinity.
4. No persons other than registered guests are permitted in the Accommodation, except for brief visits in common areas. No unregistered overnight visitors are permitted.
5. Parties or gatherings of more than 10 people are not permitted in the Accommodation, unless agreed in advance with the University of Exeter. Group meetings under the authority of a leader or teacher are tolerated provided that they do not disrupt the environment for other guests.
6. Smoking is not permitted in any University building.
7. Recreational drugs are strictly prohibited.
8. All facilities in the Accommodation are for the enjoyment of all guests. To this end, care shall be taken to respect the infrastructure. In particular, furniture shall not be moved and nothing may be fixed to furniture or walls.
9. Guests are expected to keep their rooms and the common areas clean and tidy at all times.
10. Proper care should be taken of personal valuables. The University of Exeter is not responsible in the event of their theft, loss or damage. Lost property items will be kept by the University of Exeter for 3 months. They can be retrieved in person at the reception desk or items can be posted to the owner at the owner's expense. Perishable items will be disposed of immediately.

The University of Exeter reserves the right to charge guests cleaning or damage fees, or to evict guests without refund should they fail to comply with these Rules.
